TELEPHONE NUMBER.

10th April 1964

My dear Wilson,

My partner & I have been discussing amongst ourselves the matter of introducing some younger man into the firm.

I am now writing to you at their request to know if you would care to come into the office to give a hand in the running of the business of the firm.

If you would like to do so, you would in the first instance enter as a salaried

Partner which in the course of time might lead to you becoming a participating partner.

We suggest a salary of £2500
p.a. to start with.

As our partnership agreement generally commences on the 1st Oct-56 in any year it is proposed that this letter will form the agreement with you until the end of September 1964 when we would enter into a formal agreement with you at the same salary but allowing for two annual increases of £250 each.

Assuming you accept this offer would you kindly let us know when you would be ready to take up your duties here.

Yours sincerely

R.D. Gaylor.
